

The death of my much loved friends, Mr. and Mrs. Botts, who have perished in the late disastrous fire, devolves on me the sacred duty of rendering every aid and service in my power to their Orphan Children—as a step in the discharge of this duty, I will finish, for the benefit of their children, Mr. Botts's professional business in the Federal Court and Court of Chancery —And should I remove to Richmond, which this melancholy event has rendered probable, I will also finish his business in the Court of Appeals. Those who have paid fees, will have their suits finished without further charge; those who have not, it is confidently believed, will pay the fees due with en-creased alacrity and promptitude, when assured, that they will all be applied to the use of the children of the deceased.
It is with peculiar satisfaction, that the Subscriber adds, (by authority) that Mr.
Wirt, Mr. Hay, Mr. Williams, Mr. Dade, Mr. Harrison and Mr. Stanard, (whenever not engaged on the opposite side to Mr. Botts) will join him in the discharge of this duty, and extend their exertions to Mr. Botts's cases in the Court of Appeals. From the known talents of these gentlemen added to the exertions of the Subscriber, it is confidently hoped, that general satisfaction will be given to Mr. Botts's clients.

John Minor.
